

25 Must Do's Before School Starts {Checklist}

1. Bring in extra school supplies from your home stash.
2. Cook her and the staff a meal.
3. Perform one of her responsibilities (chaperoning a trip, etc.).
4. Write her a note explaining how much you appreciate a specific way she helped your child.
5. Tell the principal something nice about her.
6. Donate a service on behalf of your company (with appropriate permission/approval).
7. Volunteer to come in for an end of the year event and take photos.
8. With your child's help, interview all of the students and ask what their favorite thing is about that teacher.
9. Donate a service hour by coupon redeemable for whatever the teacher needs.
10. Create a photo collage of special moments from the school year.
11. Arrange time off for her without the kids.
12. Volunteer for field day.
13. Help to take down student projects and distribute to students.
14. Wash her car.
15. Volunteer one of your skills for the class.
16. Re-gift something he/she needs or wants or give a gift card you received (and have not redeemed).
17. Loan the class a book.
18. Loan the class a movie (by whatever means you have that wouldn't cost you any money i.e. library, Netflix, your own collection, etc.).
19. Arrange for something she or the class needs (via church donation, your employer, Craigslist, Facebook group, neighbor, friend, etc.).
20. Download a free e-book for her.
21. Tell him all of the remarkable things your child has learned from them.
22. Say "Thank you."
23. Arrange for a special speaker through a connection you have.
24. Sign up for story time or chaperone the class in the library.
25. Send in a note looking toward the future (next school year, college, or life as an adult) and convey how your child feels he/she is better prepared because of this teacher.